Bio

Experience an artist still driven by the idea that techno is an undeniable force for social change: ABRAX is a Berlin-based vinyl imprint and producer, with a recently-released self-titled 12".

ABRAX is motivated to create music to wake people up. Why? Because ABRAX believes we are sleeping through our current crises - in the way we gossip, speak in anecdotes and in recitations; the way we indulge in petty daily dramas; and take on borrowed personas - all seemingly to distract ourselves from painful realities.

ABRAX's latest self-titled vinyl release presents four raw, hard-hitting cuts, each steering clear of the standard 4/4 plateau by mixing in high-intensity breaks. Working in this way, ABRAX shows an appreciation of and respect for classic techno but also makes sure it has its time and place - to be energising in its unpredictability.

As an evocative counter-current to a world of numbing submission, ABRAX as an artist and a label aims to wake us up from our slumber.

LIGHTS OUT PREMIERE: ABRAX - INTERVENTION [ABRAX]

Storming and trance-inducing techno at its finest from ABRAX.

KANE • UPDATED DEC 9, 2019 • ORIGINAL DEC 6, 2019

Today, Lights Out brings you yet another exclusive premiere and inaugural release, by Berlin-based artist ABRAX. Taken from his ABRAX01 EP, "Intervention" is storming and trance-inducing techno at its finest. Trippy dubby elements dance between intense percussion and atmospheric swells, layered on top of a pounding kick and driving bassline. This is prime raw warehouse material. Intervention will be released on December 9th via ABRAX.

Wer auf harten und kompromisslosen Techno steht, der sollte jetzt aufpassen. Auf dem ersten Outing des Labels ABRAX werden in dieser Hinsicht keine Gefangenen gemacht. Der Künstler hinter dem Pseudonym holt hier ganz groß aus und legt vier stramme Stücke vor, die alle unterschiedlich sind, aber dennoch wie aus einem Guss klingen. Der „Opener“ ist super für das Opening der Peaktime gedacht und die Stücke danach sind dann nicht mehr zu bremsen. Mit „Breakism“ findet sich, neben den drei 4-to-the-Floor-Tracks, noch eine coole Breakbeat-Produktion auf der Scheibe. Genial gemacht. 9 Transmitter
